

What Level?

First, John is in gym class and the teacher is showing them a new kind of game. Then, in the last fifteen minutes of class, the gym teacher tells the kids they can play tag.

autismteachingsstrategies.com

What Level?

On the way to church, Frank and his sister are in the back seat of the family car playing a very funny video game together. They are both laughing as they get out of the car and walk towards the church.

autismteachingsstrategies.com

What Level?

Hanna is playing Wii in the living room. The dad's boss from work rings the doorbell and Hanna's dad lets him in.

autismteachingsstrategies.com

What Level?

Jack's family goes to McDonald's for lunch and he sits with his parents while he eats his hamburger. Jack goes into the Playland for a while and then comes back out to sit down again and eat dessert.

autismteachingsstrategies.com

What Level?

Jenny's spends the afternoon at the water park. Jenny sees her teacher there and introduces her father to the teacher. Jenny and her family go into Burger King and then into their hotel room.

autismteachingsstrategies.com

What Level?

Jeremy is very excited about the comic book convention as he walks with his dad towards the convention center entrance. Inside, Jeremy gets even more excited when he sees an actor dressed up as Iron Man!

autismteachingsstrategies.com

What Level?

Jeffrey is in the waiting room of the doctor's office playing his favorite action game on his PSP. He has just gotten to his highest level ever! A girl nearby is crying because she is afraid of getting her first shot.

autismteachingsstrategies.com

What Level?

Taneesha has a great time playing outside at recess. She and her friend pretend they are super heroes. Then it starts raining and her class has indoor recess in the classroom.

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Fix the mistake!

Jerry's baseball team plays in the Little League State Championship. Later, some of Jerry's team are playing baseball with a plastic ball and bat in Jerry's back yard. Jerry stops the game often to make sure his team is playing by the rules.

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Fix the mistake!

At home, Becky, age 8, and her little brother like to pretend they are dogs when they play in the basement. On the school bus, Becky starts playing dogs with Alice, in the seat next to her.

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Fix the mistake!

Jerome, age 13, sees some 7-year-old boys rolling down the hill and laughing at the park. He starts rolling around with them and laughing loudly.

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Fix the mistake!

At the church party, Daniel greets his friend by knuckle bumping, his minister by saying, "What's up, dude?" and his grandfather by shaking his hand and giving him a hug.

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Fix the mistake!

Alice, age 11, is with her mom at the hairdresser. She lies down on the couch in the waiting room and plays her PSP. When they leave, she tells the hairdressers, "Nice seeing you all. Bye."

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Fix the mistake!

Brad has arrived at the birthday party at Dave and Busters. He says "Thanks for the nice party" to the mom. Waiting to ride the go carts, he introduces himself to a boy: "How do you do. My name is Brad" and shakes his hand.

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Fix the mistake!

Serena, age 9, watches funny Youtube videos after breakfast and then laughs about them with her dad on the way to school. During lunch, she and her friends are laughing about the videos so hard they can't swallow.

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Fix the mistake!

Sam is trying hard to get more friends. He lets someone eat some of his chips at lunch. He obeys the older kids who ask him to dance and sing like Michael Jackson for the girls, and he knows he is doing well because everybody laughs.

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Your own Life

Tell about a time with your family away from home when you were on Level 1 (Silly) when you should have been on Level 3 (Kind of Serious) or 4 (Serious).

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Your own Life

Tell about a time you saw other kids acting too silly and they needed to calm down.

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Your own Life

Tell about a time at your house when you were on a Level 1 (Silly) when you should have been on a Level 3 (Kind of Serious) or 4 (Serious).

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Your own Life

When you are feeling very silly and hyper at home, what are some things you are allowed to do to enjoy yourself?

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Your own Life

Tell about a time when you were in a Level 4 (Serious) situation. What was the hardest part for you? How did you get through it?

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Your own Life

Ask the adult with you to tell about a time when you were being too silly and not serious enough.

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Your own Life

Ask the adult with you to give you a suggestion on how to calm down if you are feeling too "hyper."

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Your own Life

1. Your best friend has come over to play. How do you say hello and goodbye?
2. Your mother has some friends over at the house to play cards. How do you say hello and goodbye?

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Act it out!

Pretend you are the mom or dad for a kid your age. You notice your son/daughter is saying goodbye to their uncle by saying, "Later, bro!" What should you say?

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Act it out!

The adult will pretend that he/she is an adult guest in your classroom who has come to teach the kids about the zoo. You need to: Greet this person, thank this person, say goodbye to this person.

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Act it out!

You and the adult with you will pretend now. YOU will play the adult, and the adult will play YOU. The adult (playing YOU) will make one of these mistakes: Asking personal questions, acting too silly, saying hello the wrong way, or saying goodbye the wrong way. CAN YOU SPOT THE MISTAKE?

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Act it out!

You and the adult with you will pretend now. YOU will play the adult, and the adult will play YOU. The adult (playing YOU) will make one of these mistakes: Asking personal questions, acting too silly, saying hello the wrong way, or saying goodbye the wrong way. CAN YOU SPOT THE MISTAKE?

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Act it out!

Pretend that you are the librarian in the Children's Department at the library. Explain how children are supposed to behave at the library.

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Act it out!

Pretend that you are a mom or dad helping your son or daughter with a problem. Your son/daughter is trying to make friends by making others laugh, but does not understand that the "friends" just think he is acting foolish.

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Act it out!

Pretend you are a parent who has brought a 12-year-old to a certain park they last visited when he was seven. Explain to the twelve-year-old about:

1. If he can still walk around pretending to be a train
2. If he can play in the sandbox with 7-year-olds

autismteachingsstrategies.com

Act it out!

Pretend you are a classroom teacher. Explain to a new student:

1. When during the school day kids are allowed to behave like Level 1 or 2.
2. Explain when during a school day they must act like Level 3 and 4.

autismteachingsstrategies.com